AWARD

By my order dated 21-3-1984, which is reproduced below, issues Nos. 1, 2 and 4 were disposed off and the only issue that remained was issue No. 3 concerning victimization.

The said order reads as follows:

"This is a reference made to this Tribunal by the Govt. of Goa, Daman and Diu, by its Order No. 28/16/82-ILD dated 25th September 1982. The schedule annexed to the Order of Reference reads as follows:

"Whether the action of the Management of M/s. Goa Super Electrodes Private Limited, Sancoale Goa, in terminating the services of Shri Joseph A. C. Fernandes, Chemist with effect from 26-7-1980, is legal and justified?

If not, to what relief the concerned workman is entitled to?"

2. The case of the workman, as per his statement of claim, is as follows:

He was employed in the services of the employer company as Chemist w.e.f. 1-9-1976, by letter of appointment dated 2-8-1976. At that time, the factory was only owned by J. S. F. D'Souza and the letter of appointment is signed by the proprietor Shri D'Souza. He was confirmed in the services of the employer company on 1-9-1977, the letter of confirmation being signed by the said J. S. F. D'Souza, now as Chairman of the Company. It is workman's contention that, since he was appointed by the proprietor of the factory i.e. by the person occupying the top most post in the organisation, when the factory was a proprietary concern, and his services were confirmed by the Chairman of the company i.e. the top most official of the company, his services could not be terminated by any person/authority other than the Chairman of the employer company and, as the order of dismissal in his case has been signed by the person other than the Chairman, such termination is not only illegal but ab-initio, null and void. During his entire service there was not even a single memo issued to him by the employer company prior to 11-6-1980, either in respect of his behaviour, style of work or any other matter. As the conditions of service of the employees were the same and even deteriorated with the rise in cost of living, the workmen united and joined the Goa Employees Union and the workman was elected one of the leaders of the employees at the plant level, in which capacity he participated in discussions with the Management and Government authorities. He was also elected as one of the workman's rep. while framing the Standing Orders of the firm and, at that time, he took up the case of his colleagues employed at the factory and tried to settle their grievances in legitimate and constitutional ways and means, which were not liked by the Management of the Company, who wanted to punish him for his Trade Union activities. He received a letter from the employer company dated 11-6-1980, directing therein that he stood suspended with immediate effect pending an inquiry. This letter is signed by Shri B. J. V. Pereira, a Director of the company. Another letter dated 13-6-1980, levelling certain false and baseless charges against him and asking for explanation, is also signed by the same Pereira. Both these letters could not be signed by Mr. Pereira, who was only a Director of the company at the relevant time and had no powers to issue the said letters. The workman submitted his written explanation to the charge sheet denying the charges by his letter dated 18-6-1980. Nevertheless, he received a letter dated 2-7-80 mentioning therein that an inquiry would be held against him, which letter is also signed by Shri Pereira. He attended the inquiry, which was conducted by Shri P. K. Lele, but whose name was not intimated to the workman. He participated in the inquiry, cross-examined the witnesses of the Management and examined the witnesses. He being a lay man was not conversant with the procedure of the inquiry but he could understand that the principles of natural justice have been flaunted during the proceedings, which fact he brought to the notice of the Inquiry Officer and requested him to conduct the inquiry in a fair and proper manner, but the Inquiry Officer paid no heed to his request stating that he was following the correct procedure and the interest of the workman would be safe guarded. After the conclusion of the inquiry, the workman received a letter dated 28-7-1980, signed by one Mrs. M. G. D'Souza, a Director of the Employer company, stating therein that the workman was dismissed from services with immediate effect. He raised a dispute with the employer demanding his reinstatement with full back wages and continuity of service and, as the employer did not accept his demand, he approached the Labour Commissioner's office. Conciliation proceedings took place, but with no result and, hence, this reference. It is submitted that his services have been terminated without any reasonable cause and for no misconduct committed by the workman. Hence, the termination is illegal and liable to be set aside. It is further submitted that the workman's suspension by the person other than his appointing authority and also the issuing of charge sheet by the person other than his appointing authority cannot be sustained and is liable to be set aside. It is further submitted that the workman's suspension by the person other than his appointing authority and also the issuing of charge sheet by the person other than his appointing authority cannot be sustained and is liable to be set aside. It is further submitted that the procedure followed by the Inquiry Officer during the inquiry was illegal. He has not recorded the statements properly; some of the vital statements made by the witness were not recorded and some statements, which were not at all made by them, were recorded. The inquiry is, therefore, unfair and improper and liable to be set aside. All the witnesses of the Management at the inquiry were his employees and Directors including its Chairman. They are, therefore, interested witnesses who have deposed falsely to oblige the Chairman of the Company. It is further submitted that he was not paid his subsistence allowance after his suspension pending inquiry and, as such, he could not prepare his defence properly at the domestic inquiry. The motive for the termination of the services of the workman is his legitimate trade union activities and to destroy the Union in the factory. Finally, it is submitted that the Chairman of the employer company had taken some loan from the father of the workman and, as the latter delayed the payment, some differences cropped up between the two. The workman apprehends that this is also one of the reasons for terminating his services. The Management has not given 3 months notice to the workman for termination of his service, hence the termination is illegal. The punishment awarded is grave and severe and his past record has not been taken into consideration by the employer company. He is, therefore, entitled to reinstatement in services with full back wages and continuity of services. He is further entitled to adequate compensation for mental and physical torture to him and his family due to this illegal and unjustified action of the employer.

3. In its written statement the employer has stated that the Chairman of the employer company is not the only appointing authority; the other directors are also empowered to sign the appointment or termination letters. Regarding other allegations, most of them are denied by the employer who has stated that the workman was dismissed after proper and fair inquiry held against him.

4. In his rejoinder, the workman has maintained the stand taken in his statement of claim.

5. Following issues were framed by the Tribunal:

- "1. Whether the employer proves that the domestic inquiry held by him against the workman is fair, proper and with due compliance of the principles of natural justice?
2. Whether the workman proves that his suspension and dismissal order and charge sheet served on him were not issued by proper authority?
3. Whether the workman proves that his termination of service by the Employer is an act of victimization due to his trade union activities and also to the bad relations between his father and the Chairman of the Employer?
4. Whether the workman proves that the Written Statement filed by the employer has not been properly signed and verified?"

6. On the preliminary issue of fairness, of the inquiry the employer led the evidence of the Inquiry Officer, who produced the inquiry proceedings, the findings of the Inquiry Officer and some documents. The workman, in his turn, also gave his evidence and produced various exhibits.

7. I have carefully perused the Inquiry proceedings and the exhibits produced by the parties and I am satisfied that the inquiry held against the workman is fair and proper and in compliance with the principles of natural justice. Indeed, in this inquiry the workman has fully participated by cross-examining the Management's witnesses and leading his own evidence.

8. Adv. Nagalye, appearing for the workman, in his oral arguments, has contended:

- i) That the issue of Charge Sheet by Shri Pereira, one of the Director's when the workman was appointed by the Chairman, Mr. D'Souza, is irregular;
- ii) That the person who issued the charge sheet also deposed as a witness;
- iii) That the appointment letter being signed by the Chairman, only the Chairman was the competent authority to dismiss the workman;
- iv) That the non payment of subsistence allowance to the workman has vitiated the inquiry;
- v) Finally, the two witnesses examined by the employer are subordinates of Mr. D'Souza and were intimidated by the Management.

9. Considering the first contention advanced by the Ld. Rep. of the workman:

Since there is nothing to show that under article 72 of the Memorandum and Articles of Association any of the Directors has been appointed as the Mg. Director, I see no illegality or irregularity in the issue of the charge sheet by Shri Pereira, one of the Director's of the company. No where in the Articles of Association is it stated that the appointing authority alone is the competent authority to issue the charge sheet or institute disciplinary proceedings.

10. Similarly, there is no illegality in deposing as a witness the person who issued the charge sheet; what credibility is to be given to such a statement, is a different issue altogether. This disposes off the second contention of the workman's advocate.

11. In view of what is stated in para 9 above, any Director has the power to appoint and dismiss any employee of the company, as it is not shown that any of the Directors has been appointed as Mg. Director. So, there is nothing illegal in the dismissal order issued by one of the Directors. No where in the Memorandum or Articles of Association of the Company it is stated that the authority who issued the appointment letter is the only competent authority to sign the dismissal letter.

It is to be noted that the appointment letter was issued by the Chairman, because, at that time, the employer was a proprietary concern. Thereafter, it was converted into a Limited Company and the Management was entrusted to a Board of Directors. As it is not shown that any of the Directors was appointed as Mg. Director any of them would be competent to appoint and dismiss the staff of the company. This disposes off the contention (iii) of the Ld. Rep. of the workman.

12. Considering now contention (iv):

The Ld. Rep. of the workman was unable to show me under what provision of law the inquiry proceedings are to be held as vitiated for want of payment of subsistence allowance to the employee during his period of suspension. I am also not aware of the existence of such a provision and hence, this objection is not tenable.

13. Finally, the mere fact that the two witnesses examined by the employer in the inquiry proceedings are his subordinates does not by itself make their statements incredible. The workman has not proved his allegation that the said witnesses were intimidated by the Management to give their statements in its favour.

14. Various other allegations made by the workman in his claim statement regarding the inquiry proceedings conducted by the I.O. were not at all referred to by the Ld. Rep. of the workman in his oral arguments and, therefore, it is to be presumed that he has dropped them.

15. In view of the above, I hold that the preliminary inquiry conducted by the I.O. is fair and proper and with due compliance of the principles of natural justice. This will dispose of the preliminary issues Nos. 1 and 2. Issue No. 4 regarding some defects on the written statement filed by the employer, has not been argued at all by the workman's rep. and, therefore, it is to be treated as dropped.

16. The only issue now which remains to be decided is concerning victimization, i.e. issue No. 3. The case now will proceed for the decision of this issue and, for this purpose, I fix the evidence of the workman on 22-6-1984 at 10.30 a.m. Inform the parties."

17. But before any evidence was led by the workman on the issue of victimization, at his request, another issue was framed under No. 5, reading as follows:

- "5. In case the misconduct charged with is found proved against the workman, whether the latter proves that while imposing the said punishment the employer has not taken into consideration his past record and, so the penalty imposed is grave and severe?"

18. Concerning the issue of victimization, the workman gave his evidence and the employer led the evidence of Shri Jose Francis D'Souza. In none of the above 2 statements there is anything to show that the workman was victimized by the employer. It is to be noted that the workman himself has stated that his relations with the employer were excellent; the loan of Rs. 40,000/- received by the company from the workman's father is admitted, but there is nothing on record to show that, because of this loan, the relations between the employer and the workman became spoilt. At any rate, it was for the workman to prove that he was victimized by the employer, which he has failed to prove.

19. Let us see now, whether from the evidence recorded in the domestic inquiry, which inquiry has been held fair and proper by this Tribunal by its order dated 21-3-1984 reproduced above, the misconducts, subject matter of the charge sheet, can be considered as proved.

The charge sheet dated 13-6-1980 (Exh M-1 in the inquiry proceedings) reads as follows:

"Dear Sir,

It is reported against you that, on Wednesday, the 11th June, 1980, at about 10 a.m., you barged in the cabin of the Chairman of the Company, and the undersigned, while the undersigned was having talks with two workers, Mr. Gopal Satoskar and Mr. Ragoba Naik, thus exhibiting behaviour subversive of discipline on the premises of the Establishment.

Secondly, you acted in a wilfully insubordinate and contumacious manner, in that you shouted in an impolite insulting and abusive manner, calling the Chairman of the Company and the undersigned "crooks" and "cheats".

Thirdly, when you were given a reasonable order by the Chairman, to leave the cabin, you wilfully disobeyed the same, and stood your ground, thus exhibiting insubordination.

The above acts on your part amount to gross misconduct and infringe our Standing Orders No. 17(i) and 17(xxxii) and 17(xxxvii).

You are, therefore, hereby required to show cause why you should not be dismissed from service. Your written explanation should reach the undersigned within 48 hours of the receipt of this Charge-Sheet, failing which it shall be presumed that you have no explanation to offer and accept your guilt.

Yours faithfully,
for GOA SUPER ELECTRODES PVT. LTD.,
Sd/-
B. J. V. PEREIRA
Director"

20. The employer has examined Shri J. F. D'Souza, Chairman of the Company, Shri B. J. Pereira, Director, Shri Suresh Volvoikar, Store Keeper, Miss Martha Vaz, Secretary and, the workman, besides his own evidence, has also examined Shri Raghoba Naik and Shri Gopal Satoskar.

From the statements given by the employer witnesses it is proved that, on 11-6-1980, at about 10.00 a.m., when the Chairman Shri D'Souza and the Director were sitting in the Chamber and holding discussions with the workers Gopal and Raghoba, regarding their lay-off, and payment of increment, the workman entered the chamber without permission and, as per his workman's own statement when he heard Mr. D'Souza stating that nobody can question him on the issue of increment, the workman told him to talk politely to the workers.

From the above evidence, it is also proved that the workman addressed Mr. D'Souza and Mr. Pereira, calling them "Cheats and Crooks" and refused to go out of the chamber, when he was asked to do so by Mr. D'Souza. There was a hot discussion between Mr. D'Souza and the workman in the outer office, in which both were shouting at each other.

The workman, in his statement before the Inquiry Officer, has stated that he did not use the words 'Crooks and Cheats' referring to the persons of the employers, but stated "you advisors are Crooks and Cheats", which statement is not supported by the evidence on record. The workman has further tried to justify, in his statement, his entry in the chamber of the Director without seeking permission, on the ground that he was annoyed at the remark made by Mr. D'Souza that nobody can question him on the matter of increment. But such justification cannot be accepted because the workman should know how to behave towards his superiors.

These main facts stated by the employer's witnesses are not shaken by the statement of the 2 witnesses of the workman.

21. It is to be noted that the workman could not behave towards his Superiors in the way he has done, entering the chamber without permission, shouting at them, calling them 'Cheats and Crooks' and refusing to leave the chamber when called to do so.

All these facts constitute the misconducts, subject matter of the charge sheet, which are of grave nature, because one cannot accept such behaviour of any educated person like the workman towards his superiors even though the tempers were high at that moment. The workman being inferior in the hierarchy ought to have controlled his temper while talking to his Superior. Such behaviour amounting to an act of subversive discipline cannot be tolerated and, therefore, the employer was fully justified in my opinion in imposing on the workman the punishment of dismissal, which does not call for interference of this Tribunal under Section 11(a) of the Act.

22. In view of the above, I answer to the reference by passing the following order:

ORDER

The Order of the employer dismissing the workman from services w. e. f. 28-7-1980, is legal and justified. In the circumstances of the case, I leave each party to bear its own costs.

Presiding Officer
Industrial Tribunal
